Numb. 13127.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 29, to Tuesday September 1, 1789.

Weymouth, August 29.

THEIR Majesties, with their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, having left Saltram on Thursday Morning last, arrived at Exeter at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, where they passed the Night. They set out from thence at Eight o'Clock Yesterday Morning, and returned hither at Four in the Afternoon, in perfect Health.

Whitehall, September 1.

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Hon. William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and most affectionate Subjects, the Delegates from the Burgesses of the Royal Boroughs in Scotland, associated to endeavour by the most constitutional Means to obtain a Reform in the internal Government of these Boroughs, feel ourselves impelled to embrace this the earliest Opportunity which our Situation has afforded us of approaching your Royal Person, with Sentiments of the truest and most unfeigned Congratulation on Account of your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late alarming Indisposition.

We felt, in common with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, that deep Distress with which your Majesty's Indisposition had affected the Nation at large, and therefore we could not but sincerely rejoice in an Event which restored the Energy of Government, and with it the Public Happiness and Tranquillity. In the Midst of that National Affliction which your Majesty's Illness naturally produced, your Subjects received Consolation when they beheld in your eldest Son, the Heir of your Crown and of your Illustrious House, a Prince distinguished by Virtues and Talents which rendered him the fit Representative of your Royal Person, in exercising the Functions of Government; and it is our earnest Wish that there may never be wanting Princes of the August House of Brunswick to sway the British Sceptre, and to continue for ever, as they have hitherto done, the illustrious Guardians and Protectors of National Felicity, and Public Liberty.

That your Majesty may long reign in Health and Happiness over the freest and the happiest People in the World, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, by

R. Graham, President.
John Ewen, Secretary.

A la Très Excellente Majesté du ROI,

Humble Adresse des Citoyens de la Ville et District de Montreal dans la Province de Quebec.

Très Gracieux Souverain,

NOUS les loyaux et fideles, anciens et nouveaux Sujets de votre Majesté, Citoyens de la Ville et District de Montreal dans votre Province de Quebec, prenons la Liberté d'offrir à votre Majesté nos plus vives et plus sinceres Congratulations pour les Graces aux quelles il a plu à la Divine Providence de nous faire participer, en commun avec le reste de vos loyaux Sujets, en delivrant votre Majesté de l'Indisposition allarmante dont elle a été dernierement frappée, et en la rendant à l'Exercice personelle de votre Autorité Royale.

Penetrés du Bonheur dont nous jouissons sous le Gouvernement doux et sage de votre Majesté, nous ne pouvons qu'être sensiblement affectés à la moindre Apparence d'Interruption des Soins paternels de votre Majesté; mais maintenant que le triste Présage de nos Calamités est dissipé, et que la Santé et le Bonheur domestique sont repandus de nouveau dans le Sein de notre bien aimé Souverain, nous ressentons particulierement les Bienfaits du Tout-Puissant d'avoir daigné ecouter les Prieres d'un Peuple affligé, et d'avoir exaucé ses Voeux les plus ardents.

Nous osons humblement assurer votre Majesté que nous ne cesserons d'addresser nos plus ferventes Prieres au Très-Haut, afin qu'Il accorde à votre Majesté un Regne long et heureux, et que les Privileges precieux dont vos fideles Sujets ont joüi d'une Maniere si distinguée, sous les Auspices de votre Majesté, soient à jamais conservés dans votre illustre Famille jusqu'à la Posterité la plus reculée.

[Translation.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and District of Montreal in the Province of Quebec.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal, your old and new Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and District of Montreal in your Province of Quebec, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations for the Blessings which it hath pleased Divine Providence to vouchsafe to us, in common with the rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, in recovering your Majesty from your late severe Indisposition, and restoring you to the personal Exercise of your Royal Authority.

Sensible of the Happiness which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we cannot but be truly affected by any Circumstance which which may interrupt the Exerciſe of your Majeſty's paternal Concern for the Intereſts of all your Dominions; but at the preſent Juncture, when the Gloom of National Calamity is diſpelled, and we again behold our beloved Sovereign in the full Poſſeſſion of Health and domeſtic Happineſs, we are peculiarly impreſſed with a deep Senſe of the Goodneſs of Almighty God in having liſtened to the Prayers of an afflicted People, and reſtored him to their moſt ardent Wiſhes.

We humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall not ceaſe to offer up our moſt earneſt Supplications to Heaven, that your Majeſty may enjoy a long and proſperous Reign, and that thoſe invaluable Privileges, which your faithful Subjects ſo eminently enjoy under your Majeſty's Auſpices, may be preſerved in your Illuſtrious Line to the lateſt Poſterity.

Montreal, June 16, 1789.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Honourable Lord Dorcheſter, Governor.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the Iſland Saint John, aſſembled at Charlotte Town upon Trinity Term.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of your Majeſty's Iſland of Saint John, beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your Majeſty's Throne, and to join our feeble but affectionate Voice to that of the reſt of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects in joyful Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Recovery from your late afflicting Indiſpoſition.

Situated as we are in a diſtant Part of your Majeſty's Dominions, and far from the Happineſs of your Majeſty's Preſence, we are equally ſenſible with any of our Fellow Subjects of the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Reign, and humbly and dutifully aſſure your Majeſty, that none of your faithful People feel more ſincere Joy, or are more grateful to the Divine Being for reſtoring to their Prayers their beloved Sovereign.

That your Majeſty may long and happily continue to hold up to the World a bright Example of a juſt and equitable Rule, as your Majeſty equally does of every domeſtick and private Virtue, is the ſincere and ardent Prayers of your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

James Curtis, High Sheriff.

Vienna, Auguſt 19.

The Emperor, after Three Weeks of apparent Recovery, has been again indiſpoſed. An Abſceſs has appeared near the hæmorrhoidal Veins, and an Inciſion was made in it Three ſucceſſive Times, on Saturday, Sunday and Yeſterday. His Majeſty ſtill keeps his Bed, though his Complaint is not accompanied by any Fever.

The Turks having again effected an Irruption into the Bannat, the Corps under General Vecſey being of inferior Force, fell back to Terregova, and afterwards to Feiniſch, where it was joined on the 8th Inſtant Inſtant by a Detachment from Caranſebes, and by another from Tranſylvania. The Turks, gaining Intelligence of this Reinforcement, immediately retreated to Schupaneck, where they now remain.
